

MY FAVOURITE PERSONALITY IS ALLAMA IQBAL

My Favourite Personality Allama Iqbal Essay - Hero is man of outstanding character and matchless genius. He must be a man of unique.

Under the able supervision and guidance of Syed Mir Hassan, the young poet was sleekly groomed. His emergence as a nationalist poet helped the cause of those who felt low and humiliated under British rule. The poetry and philosophy of Mawlana Rumi bore the deepest influence on Iqbal's mind. He was profoundly influenced by Western philosophers such as Friedrich Nietzsche, Henri Bergson and Goethe, and soon became a strong critic of Western society's separation of religion from state and what he perceived as its obsession with materialist pursuits. He is surely a hero in a true sense. His mystical devotion to the art of creation is very prevalent in this early compositions. Iqbal also writes poems in Persian. Iqbal preferred to work mainly in Persian for a predominant period of his career, but after , his works were mainly in Urdu. His message will remain forever. His poetry dealt with all aspects of human life. While studying for his masters degree, Iqbal came under the wing of Sir Thomas Arnold, a scholar of Islam and modern philosophy at the college. Government and public organizations have sponsored the establishment of colleges and schools dedicated to Iqbal, and have established the Iqbal Academy to research, teach and preserve the works, literature and philosophy of Iqbal. He loved nature and all his life longed for peace and tranquillity. Indian question, as is now being solved, can be countered by our united front against both the Hindus and the English. Iqbal's thoughts in his work primarily focused on the spiritual direction and development of human society, centred around experiences from his travel and stay in Western Europe and the Middle East. Iqbal migrated to Lahore and got admission in Government College, Lahore. He belongs to a family of Kashmiri Brahmans who embraced Islam years ago. It was while in England that he first participated in politics. Iqbal depicts himself as Zinda Rud "A stream full of life" guided by Rumi, "the master," through various heavens and spheres, and has the honour of approaching divinity and coming in contact with divine illuminations. Iqbal was a great Muslim poet. Iqbal was a philosopher poet, not a pure poet and he freely borrowed ideas from different schools and systems in accordance with the demand of his poetry. There are some more English Essays available here. By the time, he obtained his M. To sum up, Iqbal was the renewer, renovator and the reformer of his times for the Muslim community. Without it, our demands are not going to be accepted. Allama Muhammad Iqbal wrote poems in Persian mostly. He gave the message of Love, brotherhood, hope, and self-awareness. The political career of Syed Ahmad Khan began after He had a higher calling in view. This brought great change in his views and become a poet of Islam. Man cannot realise the "Self" out of society. In , he published his first collection of poetry, the Asrar-e-Khudi Secrets of the Self in Persian. It was a lesson of their golden traditions and matchless achievements. He would serve as president of the Punjab Muslim League, and would deliver speeches and publish articles in an attempt to rally Muslims across India as a single political entity. Iqbal was educated initially by tutors in languages and writing, history, poetry and religion. Iqbal expressed fears that not only would secularism weaken the spiritual foundations of Islam and Muslim society, but that India's Hindu-majority population would crowd out Muslim heritage, culture and political influence. Allama was not feeling happy in service and resigned. He thus became the first politician to articulate what would become known as the Two-Nation Theory " that Muslims are a distinct nation and thus deserve political independence from other regions and communities of India. Among his 12, verses of poem, about 7, verses are in Persian. At the last I just want to say that no body human can make Iqbal but we always respect these personality and learn about its message that what they want for Muslims. But he always alive in our hearts. Allama Muhammad Iqbal died on 21 April